MC - Composition Competitive

A copy of your composition MUST be included with the registration form. Ensure that your name is on the composition, with each page numbered and that each system begins with a bar number. Scores using non-traditional notation must include a set of upper-case letters to designate sections of the work for adjudicator's reference. ALL submissions are expected to be performed live for the class and composers should give this serious consideration before entering. If performance does not take place, adjudication will be given, but no class placement or recommendation for awards will be given. Performances DO NOT have to be by the composer.

ALL submissions must be fully scored, so a thorough adjudication can be given, with references to the score itself.

All compositions for voice with accompaniment must have vocal part(s) AND accompanying instrument completely notated. Assistance required to do this will not result in entry disqualification.

A recorded performance of the work sent with the score would be most welcome. The recording must be on a CD in MP3 format. These recordings will NOT be used for performance at the actual class.

ALL live performances of ANY vocal material must be presented with soloist AND a SEPARATE accompanist, and be done ACOUSTICALLY. There will be NO allowance for the use of ANY system of amplification.

Students are strongly encouraged to create imaginative, original works with a strong contemporary character, utilizing the style and musical language of 20th to 21st centuries.

All scores and CDs will be mailed to the composition adjudicator. Assessed scores will be returned by the adjudicator to the Festival Coordinator. Adjudications will be read at the performance class by a member of the Festival Music Committee.

All scores and CDs will be returned at that time.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE ADJUDICATIONS ARE FOR THE COMPOSITIONS ONLY, NOT THE PERFORMANCES.

The adjudicator may recommend compositions for performance at the Grand Festival Concert.
