

MC - Composition Competitive

Compositions must be performed at the class. Performances do not have to be by the composer.

Monetary awards of varying amounts may be given to winners of each class.

Students are strongly encouraged to utilize elements of 20th century musical language and style to give the work a contemporary character.

MC-01 Composition - Solo

Student's own composition for any solo instrument or voice.

Please include a copy of your composition with the registration form.

Ensure that your name is on the composition, with each page numbered and that each system begins with a bar number.
